A colorful illustration of a classroom. In the center is a large green chalkboard with a white border. On the chalkboard, the text "April 16, 2021" and "Classwork" is written in a white, bold, sans-serif font. Above the chalkboard is a long, horizontal wooden object, possibly a chalk tray or a decorative element. To the right of the chalkboard is a round wall clock with a white face and black hands. To the left of the chalkboard is a wooden desk with a matching wooden chair. To the right of the chalkboard is a wooden bookshelf with several books and a globe on top. The floor is made of light-colored square tiles. The walls are a light green color.

Moominpapa closes the door of the house and looks around. He lives in a small village and likes his Moominvalley. He loves playing and walking in the forest, but today he wants to clean his garden. He doesn't talk to his wife when he works, but he sometimes listens to music and dances. She doesn't mind! She bakes some tasty bread for their family. Snorkmaiden often helps her mother in the kitchen. They watch TV when they cook and enjoy being together.
